HENDERSON MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO DRUG TRAFFICKING

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced that BRADLEY H. GISH, age 22, of 825 N. Elm Street, Henderson, Kentucky, pled guilty to drug trafficking on March 22, 2007.

The maximum potential penalties are up to 30 years imprisonment, a $2,000,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of at least 6 years.

Gish admitted that he conspired with a co-defendant to possess with intent to distribute $3,600 of methamphetamine in March and April of 2006.

On April 13, 2006, Henderson County Sheriff's deputies observed as a red 1994 Oldsmobile Bravada with two males, Gish and a co-defendant, pulled into the driveway at a residence located at 2022 North Elm Street. A search warrant executed thereafter resulted in the discovery of 17 grams of marijuana in Gish's pants pocket, approximately 3.7 grams of crystal methamphetamine were found in the co-defendant's pants pocket, and approximately 29 grams of crystal methamphetamine were found in the back seat of the vehicle. In the center console of the vehicle officers found $385.00. The drugs have a street value of approximately $3,600.
